Defendant: Sabrina Chowdhury

Charge: Part III Provincial Offences Act summons for an offence under the Ontario College of Trades and Apprenticeship Act, 2009, sec. 86 (7) – obstruction of investigators and inspectors.

Summary: On April 26, 2016, Ontario College of Trades enforcement officers visited the home of Sabrina Chowdhury after receiving information that this individual was assisting another person in taking the Hairstylist Trade Examination. The enforcement officers determined that one individual was confirmed to be providing information that is contained in the trade examination for the hairstylist trade (332A).

On Aug. 11, 2016, Sabrina Chowdhury was convicted of the charge and the court imposed a monetary fine, including a victim fine surcharge.
